U.S. Army Veteran Rosa Troutman Joins The DiSTI Corporation

The Former U.S. Army Major Joins The DiSTI Corporation as Program Manager, Bringing Extensive Military Expertise to the Defense Simulation and Training Industry

Orlando, FL (TBD) – The DiSTI Corporation proudly announces the appointment of Mrs. Rosa Troutman as Program Manager, further strengthening its leadership team with her distinguished military background. Mrs. Troutman, a seasoned professional from the United States Army, brings a wealth of experience to her new role.

Troutman's military career spans over 22 years, where she notably served as a Program Manager with the U.S. Army PEO STRI, showcasing her expertise in strategic program management. Her leadership and forward-thinking talents were instrumental in bringing the latest advancements in technology to warfighter readiness and training.

"We are honored to welcome Rosa Troutman to The DiSTI Corporation. Her extensive experience as a Program Manager and her contributions to military education make her an invaluable asset to our team. We are committed to empowering veterans in their civilian careers and are proud to have Rosa as an integral part of our organization," said DiSTI CEO John Hayward.

Prior to her role with PEO STRI, Rosa held a significant position as an Assistant Professor of Military Science ROTC with the University of Puerto Rico. In this capacity, she contributed to the development and training of future military leaders, underscoring her commitment to education and mentorship.

In addition to her military accomplishments, Mrs. Troutman holds an MBA in Project Management from Amberton University, further emphasizing her dedication to continuous learning and strategic project execution.

In her new role as Program Manager at The DiSTI Corporation, Rosa Troutman will leverage her extensive experience to oversee and enhance key projects within the company. Her demonstrated expertise in proposal writing, contract management, and overall program management will play a crucial role in driving the continued success of The DiSTI Corporation in the defense simulation and training industry.

Recruiting veterans like Major Troutman is essential for the defense simulation and training sector. Veterans bring a unique set of skills, discipline, and real-world experience that are unparalleled. Their ability to adapt, make quick decisions under pressure, and work cohesively as a team aligns seamlessly with the demands of the industry.

As the defense simulation and training industry continues to evolve, Rosa Troutman's leadership will play a pivotal role in driving innovation, efficiency, and success.
